The Only Place to Be

98/99
Season

From the Director

Dear Friends:

Welcome to Cal Performances' 1998/99 season. As you read the brochure and discover the over-45 fascinating events coming to our stage, we hope you'll also take a moment to notice the many accolades Cal Performances has received during the past year. It's important to us that we share them with you, our audience, because your support has played such a significant role in making Cal Performances one of the world's most vital performing arts centers. Year after year, we're able to bring you today's most important and innovative talents, in part because great artists simply find it exciting to perform for great audiences.

In that spirit, I know you'll agree that there is a wealth of extraordinary artistic experiences ahead in our 1998/99 season, including a rare appearance by the incomparable New York City Ballet; the American premiere of a spectacular production from Peter Sellars; the return, by popular demand, of Mark Morris' The Hard Nut; the Bay Area recital debut of piano sensation Arcadi Volodos; an eye-popping new 3D work by Robert Wilson and Philip Glass; a very special afternoon with the remarkable Itzhak Perlman; a world premiere by Merce Cunningham set to acoustic music; and appearances by Gidon Kremer, the Ballet Nacional de Cuba, Renée Fleming, the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, and much more!

I know that you will want to subscribe to our 93rd season of bringing the best in the world of the performing arts to the UC Berkeley campus. Thanks to you, Cal Performances is the only place to be.

Back by popular demand, Mark Morris' outrageously entertaining version of the timeless holiday tale of Marie and Drosselmeyer offers Bay Area audiences another chance to catch this critically acclaimed Nutcracker with a twist. An utterly original resetting of the 19th-century classic in 1960s suburbia — complete with go-go boots, Barbie Dolls, and hilarious dancing snowflakes — The Hard Nut remains true to E.T.A. Hoffmann's heartwarming tale and "does justice to Tchaikovsky's immortal score in ways that could make even the best traditional productions pale," says the San Francisco Chronicle. "Morris takes us on a wild ride to the heart of laughter in dance."

"One thing is constant with the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater...the powerhouse charisma of its dancers," says The New York Times. Formed in 1958 by brilliant choreographer Alvin Ailey, and now under the artistic direction of Judith Jamison, this dynamic troupe is a treasured cultural icon and one of America's preeminent dance companies. Time and again, Ailey's dancers bring audiences to their feet with the surging excitement and commanding virtuosity of their performances. The ensemble returns with beloved classics — including Ailey's spiritual masterpiece Revelations — as well as new works.

FRI & SAT, APR 23 & 24, 8 PM, ZH

Always unpredictable and imaginative, legendary choreographer Merce Cunningham has spent a lifetime not just living on the cutting edge, but inventing it. One of the true giants of 20th-century contemporary art, Cunningham has made Berkeley — along with Paris and Tokyo — one of his company's primary artistic residences. Exploring movement in its purest form, his extraordinary dancers return with a program of new work, including the world premiere of a piece set to music composed and performed by Gavin Breyers.

MacArthur "genius" Award winner Bill T. Jones continues his endless quest for beauty and artistic truth in We Set Out Early...Visibility Was Poor, his first full-length work since 1994's powerful Still/Here. Set to the music of Stravinsky, Cage, and Peteris Vasks, Jones' newest work explores the mysterious relationship between history and memory, leading us on a spiritual adventure through the 20th century. "The beauty of We Set Out Early is that the journey doesn't end once the dancers leave the stage — it continues in the mind and in the memory," says The Washington Post.

The acknowledged masterpiece of 16th-century Chinese Kun opera, Peony Pavilion stands alongside Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet and Monteverdi's glorious operas in the history of great world theater. The American premiere of this English version by eminent scholar of Chinese literature Cyril Birch features new staging by Peter Sellars; a stunning score by Tan Dun (who composed the Heaven Earth Mankind symphony for the Hong Kong reunification ceremonies); and a brilliant cast, including living legend Madame Hua Wenyi and international soprano sensation Ying Huang. Sung, acted, and danced in Chinese and English, and illuminated by video, digital samplers, synthesizers, and traditional Chinese instruments, Peony Pavilion is about the dreams of a young generation, death, devotion and love, ritual and resurrection.

TUES-SAT, APR 13-17, 8 PM, ZH [SL]

With the radical brilliance of their landmark 1976 collaboration Einstein on the Beach, director/designer Robert Wilson and composer Philip Glass changed the face of music theater for all time. Together again for the first time since Einstein, Wilson and Glass have created a multimedia event for the new millennium. Using state-of-the-art 3D animation rendered in 70mm film, Monsters of Grace explores the unlimited possibilities of light, sound, and object in a surrealistic theatrical dream world. Sung in English, the libretto features ecstatic love songs based on the spiritual poetry of 13th-century Sufi mystic Rumi, performed live by the Philip Glass Ensemble and guest soloists.

SAT, OCT 10, 8 PM, ZH

A House of Blues production, Highway 61 uses music, film, and narrative to trace the history of the blues — from its gospel roots in the Mississippi Delta to the red-hot urban sounds of Chicago. A multimedia musical adventure, this celebration of a classic American art form features some of our country's greatest living bluesmen, including the legendary Taj Mahal, a recent Grammy Award winner for his album Señor Blues, gospel greats the Blind Boys of Alabama (of Gospel at Colonus fame), and special guest stars to be announced.

Michael Brecker, saxophone

SAT, MAY 1, 8 PM, ZH

Michael Brecker is "shaping a generation of saxophonists the way Coltrane did in the 1960s," says The New York Times. Considered one of the leading tenor sax players in the world today, this seven-time Grammy Award winner was recently named Best Soloist of the Year (JazzLife) and Jazz Man of the Year (Swing Journal). Brecker headlines the annual Pacific Coast Collegiate Jazz Festival with the support of Joey Calderazzo on piano, James Genus on bass, and Jeff "Tain" Watts on drums.

Led by eminent conductor and harpsichordist Nicholas McGegan, this prize-winning chamber group's recent recording of Alessandro Scarlatti cantatas was named Recording of the Month and Editor's Choice by Gramophone magazine. Specializing in the music of its distinguished forebearers in the original 17th-century Arcadian Academy, the ensemble — performing an all-Scarlatti program — is joined by sensational young countertenor David Daniels, whose striking voice and consummate musicianship have the "ability to hold an audience spellbound," says The Scotsman.

Lorraine Hunt, mezzo-soprano

Peter Sellars, director

SUN, JAN 31, 3 PM, HH

First a professional violist and now a famed mezzo-soprano, Lorraine Hunt is one of the most sought-after vocalists in early music. She appears at the most prestigious international opera houses in some of today's uniquely innovative productions — from the provocative Peter Sellars updates of Mozart to the latest Baroque opera from Les Arts Florissants. With her distinctive combination of "dazzling sound, interpretive eloquence, and sheer joyful abandon" (San Francisco Chronicle), the Bay Area native performs a program of J.S. Bach's cantatas Nos. 82, 170, and 199, staged by Peter Sellars.

Orlando Consort

SAT, FEB 13, 8 PM, FCC

"Singing with spirit and danger" (Gramophone), this British male cappella group specializes in bringing to life the musical riches of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. Often compared to its celebrated female counterpart Anonymous 4, the Orlando Consort won the coveted 1996 Gramophone Award for Best Early Music Recording, while its brilliant American debut at the 1997 Boston Early Music Festival was rated one of the Top 10 classical events of the year by The Boston Globe.

SUN, NOV 22, 3 PM, HH

Renowned for his ground-breaking roles in Nixon in China and The Death of Klinghoffer, American lyric baritone Sanford Sylvan is a highly communicative singer with a voice of remarkable warmth and range. Nominated for three Grammy Awards for Best Classical Vocal Performance (including his all-American recital album and his role in John Adams' The Wound Dresser), Sylvan is joined by long-time collaborator David Breitman for an evening of American songs by Virgil Thomson, Earl Kim, David Leisner, John Harbison, Wes York, and Samuel Barber.

SAT, JAN 9, 8 PM, ZH

Awarded the first Solti Prize by the conductor himself in 1996 and named Musical America's 1997 Vocalist of the Year, Renée Fleming is the most precious of treasures: a radiant soprano with a lush, creamy voice, arresting stage presence, and charming humility. In the first rank among today's lyric sopranos, Fleming performs with the world's premier opera companies and orchestras to standing-room-only crowds, which include such luminaries as Cecilia Bartoli, who raves, "I place her with the sun!" Fleming makes her long-awaited Bay Area recital debut at Cal Performances.

SUN, MAR 14, 3 PM, HH

This highly promising young Austrian singer is already making waves on the international opera scene, enchanting audiences with her phenomenal range, luminous voice, and intelligent charm. Kirchschrager's debut lieder recording received the highest rating from BBC Music magazine and won her France's coveted Diapason d'Or award. Her critically acclaimed 1997 Bay Area recital debut at Cal Performances was "a recital of art, artistry, and pure sensual delight," according to the Oakland Tribune. Bay Area native Terry Riley, the godfather of minimalism, has been a determined seeker of new musical frontiers for more than three decades. In his seminal 1964 work In C, Riley used the power of reiteration to reinvent the entire process of listening to music. A wonderful pianist who masterfully blends classical tradition with the melodic subtlety of Indian music and the improvisatory flair of Western jazz, Riley "is a musician of enormous sophistication and technical ability who finds the center of the tones and enters into them in the genuine hope of discovering something essential about the lifting of our spirits," says the Los Angeles Times.

Ensemble InterContemporain

SAT, APR 17, 8 PM, HH

"The creations of our times, and of our entire century, are in need of champions," writes Pierre Boulez, founder and president of Ensemble InterContemporain. "We must lay claim to the spirit of adventure — learn to desire uncertainty, to deliberately seek the unknown." The 31 members of Ensemble InterContemporain — France's first ensemble dedicated to the exploration and revelation of the music of the 20th century — are committed to encouraging the realization of what is richest and most promising in the contemporary imagination.

CO-SPONSORED BY THE CENTER FOR NEW MUSIC AND AUDIO TECHNOLOGY. THE ONE-WEEK RESIDENCY OF ENSEMBLE INTERCONTEMPORAIN IS A CO-PRODUCTION OF CAL PERFORMANCES AND STANFORD LIVELY ARTS.

"We must lay claim to the spirit of adventure..."

Cal Performances' popular Family Fare series is the perfect introduction to the performing arts. Each specially-designated matinee performance features half-priced tickets for children age 16 and under. Subscribe to all three events, and adults save 25% as well!

National Acrobats of China

SAT, NOV 28, 2 PM, ZH

The master entertainers of China's foremost acrobatic company serve up an amazing feast of their traditional carnival arts, including juggling, clowning, tumbling, plate balancing, diabolo spinning, unicycle riding, ladder breaking, and even candle-stick dancing. Audiences of all ages will be astounded by their thrilling feats of physical dexterity. How do they do that?

Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater

SAT, FEB 27, 2 PM, ZH

"One thing is constant with the Alvin Ailey American Dance Group...the powerhouse charisma of its dancers," says The New York Times. Formed in 1958 by brilliant choreographer Alvin Ailey, and now under the artistic direction of Judith Jamison, this dynamic troupe is a treasured cultural icon and one of America's preeminent dance companies. Time and again, Ailey's dancers bring audiences to their feet with the surging excitement and commanding virtuosity of their performances. The ensemble returns with beloved classics — including Ailey's spiritual masterpiece Revelations — as well as new works.

Ballet Folklórico "Quetzalli" de Veracruz

SUN, APR 18, 3 PM, ZH

With stamping feet, swirling skirts, and flying machetes, the Ballet Folklórico "Quetzalli" de Veracruz offers a visual fiesta of the song and dance of Mexico. Performing to music played live on traditional stringed instruments, the company's dancers create a vibrant display of color and intricate rhythm, highlighting the folk traditions of their home state of Veracruz, birthplace of "La Bamba." The "Quetzalli" has received standing ovations from Cuba to Malaysia, proving that it is indeed one of Mexico's most popular exports.

SAT, OCT 3, 8 PM, ZH [SL]

"The first time I heard Astor Piazzolla make music," says famed violinist Gidon Kremer, "it was as if I had been struck by lightning." One of the most original and compelling artists of our age, Kremer gives new life to a little-known masterpiece by the great Argentine composer in a chamber version of this tango opera for two singers, narrator, and instrumental ensemble. Beauty, sensuality, triumph, and tragedy mingle in this unique union of two of the most passionate forms of music.

Borromeo
String Quartet

SUN, OCT 18, 3 PM, HH

Formed in 1989 by four young graduates of the Curtis Institute of Music, this truly international ensemble of virtuoso soloists plays with breathtaking intensity and a sublime sense of communion. "Through the perfection of its ensemble and intonation, through its poise and in its passion, the Borromeos are recreating the medium anew, and we are lucky to be here to hear it," says The Boston Globe.

Iván Fischer, conductor

THU, OCT 22, 8 PM, ZH [SL]

In this collaboration of compatriots, Hungarian-born pianist András Schiff and the internationally acclaimed Budapest Festival Orchestra join for an evening of unforgettable music of the 20th century. Renowned worldwide for his inspired and intelligent interpretations of the keyboard works of the great composers, Schiff performs two brilliant piano concertos by his countryman Béla Bartók, and the Orchestra brings to life two masterpieces by the immortal Stravinsky.

Carmina Quartet

SUN, FEB 21, 3 PM, HH

Formed in 1984 in Zurich, Switzerland, the Carmina ranks among the top international quartets, with devoted followings in each of the major European music centers. Winner of Gramophone's Best Chamber Music Recording Award and the coveted Deutsche Schallplattenpreis, the Carmina impresses with its "sheer virtuosity," says The Washington Post.

Trio Fontenay

SUN, MAR 21, 3 PM, HH

Germany's Trio Fontenay (named after the street in Hamburg where its members first practiced together) has been passionately dedicated to the performance of piano trio literature since its formation in 1980. Acclaimed for its superb technical skill and interpretive savvy, the award-winning ensemble is also noted for its cohesiveness and astonishing accuracy. These team players are "the best piano trio performing today," says CD Review.

Angelique Kidjo

FRI, OCT 9, 8 PM, ZH

Angelique Kidjo, the African funk diva of world music, melds African melodies, rhythms, and words with Western technology and styles to create music that "swoops around listeners on wings of sonic fire" (Billboard). Singing in the Fon language of her native Benin, as well as in Yoruba, Mina, and English, Kidjo spreads her message of unity and compassion with a driving beat and infectious enthusiasm.

WOFA - Music & Dance of Guinea

SAT, OCT 24, 8 PM, ZH

Blending ritual with contemporary innovation, WOFA (which means "come along" in the Soso language) creates an exuberant, percussive ballet of the dances, rhythms, and music of the lower coast of Guinea in western Africa. The group's three female dancers draw on the traditional dances of African village life, accompanied by seven male musicians who are uncontested champions of Guinea's percussion instruments, including the djembe, dunun, and wassakhoumba.

Marisa Monte

TUE, NOV 17, 8 PM, ZH

Marisa Monte, currently Brazil's best-selling singer, is a performer of striking versatility and range, with an irresistible stage presence. With her melting mezzo-soprano voice and a repertory that encompasses such varied sources as Carmen Miranda, the Velvet Underground, and Brazilian pop masters Caetano Veloso, Gilberto Gil, and Carlinhos Brown, Monte creates music that is at once youthful and timeless, Brazilian and cosmopolitan.

Mark O'Connor, violin

SAT, DEC 5, 8 PM, ZH [SL]

Grammy Award winner Mark O'Connor's rare and inventive talent spans virtually every musical genre, from classical to Texas swing. His Appalachia Waltz, with Yo-Yo Ma and Edgar Meyer, debuted at number one on the Billboard classical charts; his current release Liberty! — which includes guest appearances by Ma, James Taylor, and Wynton Marsalis — was the second album in history to make both the classical and Americana charts. But O'Connor weaves his most powerful spell in his solo performances, which are "moving occasions filled with energy, joy, and laughter...you know you're listening to genius," says the Seattle Times.

Salif Keita

TUE, FEB 9, 8 PM, ZH

Even the ushers can't sit still when Salif Keita — "the golden voice of Mali" — rocks the house with his propulsive African-jazz-funk-Europop-R&B sound. One of the most gifted singers of the 20th century, Keita returns to Cal Performances after two successful engagements. "Keita's voice is remarkable in itself," says Rolling Stone, "its high, bracing purity is heightened by a unique phrasing that combines full-tilt warrior strength, the sensual lilt of the Brazilian samba, and Islamic prayer calls."

Mary Black

SUN, OCT 25, 7 PM, ZH

Irish chanteuse Mary Black has sold more records in her native land than U2 or Sinéad O'Connor and regularly fills venues from Irish country pubs to London's Royal Albert Hall. Also Ireland's most awarded artist, Black is a singer of distinctive vocal passion, whose pristine voice, interpretive skill, and emotional power form the perfect vehicle for her characteristic blend of pop, jazz, and traditional Celtic styles.

Klezmer Mania!

TUE & WED, DEC 22 & 23,
7 PM, ZH

A beloved Bay Area tradition, Klezmer Mania! returns for its ninth annual seasonal celebration of Yiddish culture, theater, humor, music, and miscellaneous hijinks. Founded by violinist Kaila Flexer and mandolinist Mike Marshall, Klezmer Mania! features singers, musicians, and other performers reveling to the serpentine melodies and infectious rhythms of klezmer — the ancient celebratory music created in the shtetls of Eastern Europe. Fargin zikh (enjoy)!

Gypsy Caravan: A Celebration of Roma Music & Dance

SAT, MAR 13, 8 PM, ZH [SL]

For the last 2,000 years, the Roma people (Gypsies) have wandered the world from India to the Middle East and across Europe. Along the way, their rich and varied culture has influenced the artistry of their adopted countries — from Hungarian violin composition to flamenco of southern Spain — yet the Roms have maintained their own creative voice. Gypsy Caravan is a unique touring festival featuring more than 40 performers showcasing the inventiveness, power, haunting beauty, and sheer joy of Roma traditions.

Zap Mama

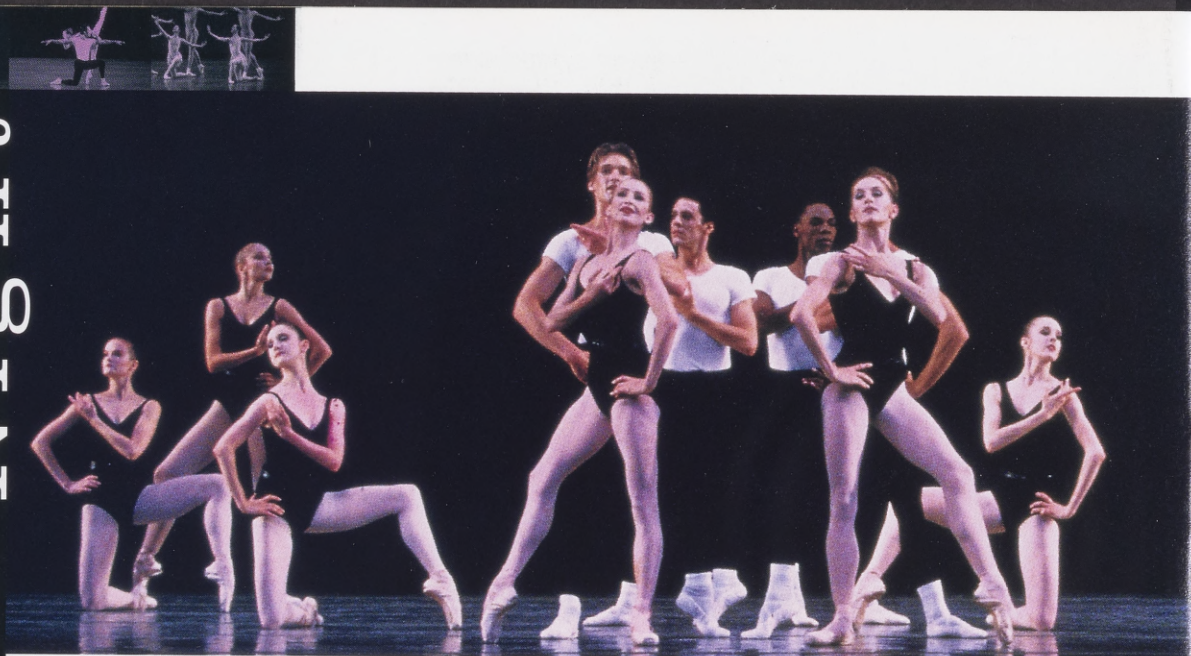

SAT, MAR 27, 8 PM, ZH

Zap Mama has evolved into a cutting-edge collective whose blend of hip-hop, reggae, pygmy chants, Zulu-based mbaqanga, Turaq wails, and Western jazz transcends all boundaries of musical and political expression. Led by passionate vocalist Marie Daulne, and performing on everything from their own clothes to Perrier bottles, the members of Zap Mama incorporate the rhythms, scales, and sounds of the world into an eclectic theatrical experience — much like an Afropop STOMP! — while their giddy spirit and sense of fun make for a playful evening of musical mayhem and soul.

The Stage & Beyond

The performance you see on stage is only the start of our artistic programming. As part of the UC Berkeley campus, Cal Performances is uniquely positioned to invite frequent interaction between artists and the community. We produce over 100 education and community programs each season, which serve more than 25,000 culturally diverse Bay Area residents — from elementary schoolchildren, to college students, to senior citizens.

- Artists
- Community
- Education
- Students

SCHOOLTIME

The SchoolTime program is the cornerstone of Cal Performances' educational initiative, serving 140 public and private schools, grades 2 through 12, at a nominal fee. Children learn in the classroom with study materials provided by Cal Performances, then attend specially scheduled daytime performances — often as their first performing arts experience.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Free classes, workshops, and lectures are scheduled in schools, senior centers, cultural organizations, and throughout the community during the year for the participation of the public at large. On-campus Sightlines events (see p. 25) give audience members an intimate look at the artistic process.

THE UNIVERSITY

For UC Berkeley students, Cal Performances provides access to visiting artists as part of an integrated education. Master classes, lecture-demonstrations, residencies, and symposia, created in partnership with the UC Berkeley faculty, are part of daily campus life for undergraduate and graduate students. Cal Performances also makes available half-price tickets for performances to all UC Berkeley students.

WITH OUR THANKS...

Cal Performances gratefully acknowledges the major support of the National Endowment for the Arts, California Arts Council, AT&T, Bank of America, The Florence Gould Foundation, Walter and Elise Haas Fund, The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, E. Nakamichi Foundation, Bernard Osher Foundation, Rockefeller Foundation, The L.J. Skaggs and Mary C. Skaggs Foundation, and the Zellerbach Family Fund.

We thank the many other foundations, corporations, individuals, and government agencies who support our programs and regret that there is not space enough to list them all here.

"The performance made me feel alive inside... I

When you support Cal Performances, you make possible the power, beauty, and joy of the performing arts in our community.

- The power of Richard Goode's insightful performances of Beethoven.
- The beauty of a young child's face as she sees the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater for the first time — and then takes a class from an Ailey dancer in her school!
- The joy of fellow seniors engaging choreographer Merce Cunningham in a fascinating dialogue about life and its lessons.

Plus, your contribution brings joy and convenience into your life! Such benefits as VIP tickets, free parking, and receptions with artists make your relationship with Cal Performances a delight in the theater and behind the scenes!

SPECIAL EVENTS

Complete part C. Please see p. 5 for complete details on 1998/99 Special Events.

SINGLE TICKETS

Complete part D. Please Note: Single tickets go on sale August 16, 1998. We will not fill single ticket orders prior to this date.

SEATING SELECTION

Consult maps and order by preferred and alternate section number. If requesting center sections, please include third choice. Subscription seating is completed on a first-come, first-served basis. Order early for best seating selection.

WILL CALL

All ticket orders received less than 10 days prior to performance will be held at Will Call, which opens one hour prior to curtain.

EXCHANGES

Available for Series and Choose-Your-Own Subscribers only. Series Subscribers retain full discount only when exchanging to another performance by the same artist (sorry, not applicable for Family Fare Subscribers; a 10% discount will be applied). A 10% discount will be given on exchanges to all events not included on original subscription. Tickets must be received by the Ticket Office 24 hours prior to the event from which you are exchanging. You may mail in your tickets or fax a photocopy of your torn tickets to 510.643.2359.

Discounts

SUBSCRIBER DISCOUNTS

Series and Choose-Your-Own Subscribers may add 1998/99 events at any time during the year and receive a 10% discount (Special Events excluded). Series and Choose-Your-Own Subscribers may also purchase additional tickets for a subscription performance at a 10% discount.

GROUP DISCOUNTS

Groups of 10 or more receive a 15% discount. Please call 510.642.1068 for more information.

SINGLE TICKET DISCOUNTS

Available to UC Berkeley students (50% off); UC Berkeley Alumni Association members ($3 off); UC Berkeley faculty and staff, seniors (age 65 and over), and other students ($2 off). ID is required at the door. Indicate applicable discount in space provided on order form. No double discounts and no discounts on top of subscription discounts.

Patron Information

CHILDREN

All children over the age of two must have a ticket. Please inform the Ticket Office if you will be attending with a child so we may help make the best seating selection for you.

LATE SEATING

Latecomers will be asked to wait in the lobby until intermission or an appropriate interval in the program as designated by the artist.

LOST OR MISPLACED TICKETS

Can't find your tickets? Call the Ticket Office at 510.642.9988 and we will have duplicate tickets waiting for you at Will Call.

REFUNDS

Due to the nature of the performing arts, programs are subject to change without notice. Refunds are given only in the case of event cancellation.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

Wheelchair accessible. Persons who require disability-related seating and/or sign language interpreters should contact the Ticket Office at 510.642.1068 at least two weeks prior to an event to ensure best possible arrangements.
